

4 Must to visit cities in West India you should explore

Places Covered :

Description

India is a land of diversity with so many rich cultures, traditions, and customs living with each other. Appreciating and respecting each other's very existence. Festivals are a way to explore and experience our old traditions and cherishing all those moments. Every state of India has its own festivals and ancient history. The cultural and architectural heritage of every state of India is magnificent and distinguished. Every year thousands of tourists across the world travels India to witness the richness of its culture and architectural heritage. Here, you get a brief view about 4 Must to visit cities in West India before you book your tickets.

After all the years of Mughal invasions and destruction done by them, India saved its ancient culture and the remaining architectural history. These are clearly visible today, telling us the struggle our ancestors must have gone to save their country. Hence, it becomes more important to explore our history and know it more closely. West India is one of those regions of India that has got rich traditions, ancient sights, and enthralling beaches.

What are top 4 Must to visit cities in West India to explore?

Goa

Image Courtesy: Google Images

Goa is the most loved space of West India, which is visited every year by thousands of tourists. Talking about the popular cities of West India, reminds of Goa immediately. It is one of the most visited cities amongst tourists all over the world. Goa is further categorized as North Goa and South Goa.

It has got enthralling white beaches, lively nightlife, wonderful hospitality, and enticing Water Sports. It has got so many beaches such as Baga Beach, Calangute Beach, Palolem Beach, Vagator Beach and many more.

If you are planning to explore the ethnicity of Goa, then don't forget to witness the beauty of Dudhsagar Falls in South Goa. If you are an adventure freak, then you definitely going to fall in love with the wáter sports. Like Kneeboarding, Kite Surfing, Paragliding, diving, etc.

Book your tickets and explore the exotic Goa with Delightful Goa Tour Packages!!

Mahabaleshwar

Image Courtesy: Google Images

Situated in Satara district in the state of Maharashtra, Mahabaleshwar embracing the hills. Being a hill station it is loved by many tourists, come here across India. Every year many trekking freaks visit this city; one can experience the mountains offering you so many eye-pleasing sights.

Here, in this city, you explore the ancient history of West India with the beautiful Pratapgarh Fort, Elphinstone Point, Wilson Point, Mount Malcom, and many more.

If you want to experience the horse riding then Mahabaleshwar has got Venna Lake for you. Here you can get a beautiful experience and surely going to love the surrounding this lake.

Book your tickets and experience the beauty of Mahabaleshwar with Lonavala and Mahabaleshwar Tour Packages!!

Pune

Image Courtesy: Google Images

Pune is a beautiful state of West India in the state of Maharashtra. Called by many people as Poona. This pace of west India has got a glorious and courageous history. It is known to as the land of the great Maratha King named Shivaji Maharaj. He was the most and still is the celebrated and worshipped king. His love for his mother nation and land kept him struggle and fight against the Mughals.

Pune has got a wide history and still embracing the heritage of ancient India. Here you get to explore number of monuments and places. Here you can enjoy your trip to the fullest. If you are here then you should visit Dagdusheth Halwai Ganpati Temple. It is an enticing Hindu temple where Lord Ganesha is worshipped. This place has a great significance and hence every year thousands of devotees come here across India and seeks the blessings of lord Ganesha. And the Shaniwarwada you can explore. It is an outstanding historical landmark of Pune. Considered to be as one of the best tourist places and making Pune to be in the list of 4 must to visit cities in West India.

It was constructed in year of 1732. Known to be as the main centre of the Peshwas of the Maratha Empire. Vishrambaug Wada is also gives you an alluring experience. The last Peshwa – Bajirao II built this as his residence space. It is a three-storey building, a must to explore space that tells the story of India and its history.

Shirdi

Image Courtesy: Google Images

Popular only for one person and reason, Shirdi is a town located in the state of Maharashtra. The person is Sai Baba, and reason to come here is to seek his blessings. It is a peaceful and beautiful village, which witness thousands of worshippers every day. It is touted to be the most visited space across India; this place has got a lot of Significance. The followers of Sai Baba do everyday lakhs of donations and sometimes the amount reach to ten million dollars. Hence making this sacred space to be one of the 4 must to visit cities in West India. If you are here in Shirdi then you can explore Dwarkamai Mosque and Gurusthan.

Book your tickets and seek blessings with our Shirdi With Shani Shingnapur Tour Package!!

Enjoy your vacations when exploring the west India, its history and culture with ethnic traditions. But in 2021 be cautious and follow the Covid rules to give yourself and others a safe space.

Itinerary

Terms & Conditions
