

What are the best places to visit in Rajasthan in Monsoon?

Places Covered :

Description

The royal Rajasthan is famous for its hospitality and Raj Mahals. Rajasthan has its own significance in the history of India; it is the land of valour and bravery. But with this it has its own cultural and traditional magnificence. So many charismatic places to visit in Rajasthan in monsoon are there.

You can visit this beautiful place any time, but monsoon is the best time of all. Summer is also good, but the scorching sun makes the journey a bit teasing with its dry, heated, and humid environment. Whereas in monsoon the Rajasthan use to be at its utter beauty, there are some enchanting places to visit in Rajasthan in rainy season, that you will love to experience.

In Rajasthan, during the rainy season the barren terrain turns into fresh green ones, giving the sigh of serenity.

Here, in this blog we will tell you the most beautiful places to see in Rajasthan during monsoon, stay tuned!

Top 5 places to visit in Rajasthan in Monsoon

Mount Abu

Like a small paradise in Rajasthan, with hills, green trees, beautiful sunrise and sunset. Here the weather always used to be fresh, cool, and calm, but during monsoon its beauty gets increased only. The green mountains make this picturesque beauty more lively and ecstatic.

Mother nature has blessed Mount Abu with its blissful embrace, whole year, there used to be so much crowd here, it is the most desirable Rajasthan family holiday tour space.

In mount Abu, you can go to enjoy the lake sight, the Nakki Lake, a magnificent beauty, it have clear blue colour water surrounded by the amazing scenic. You will just fall in love with this hill picturesque beauty.

Apart from Nakki Lake, there are more tourist attraction, those you can explore, some of them are Toad Rock View Point, Dilwara Jain Temple, for those who would love to explore the wildlife sanctuary, can visit Mount Abu Sanctuary, and a lot more!

You can book your tickets easily, and explore this beautiful place.

Jaipur

The ethnic city known famously as The Pink City, Jaipur, is the capital of state Rajasthan, it is the most loved and among the best places to visit in Rajasthan during monsoon. Royal city Jaipur commemorates the season of rain as a festival, named Teej, it has a great significance in the cultural and traditional aspects. All the people here celebrate this festival; the married women carry out all the rituals, where they wear their traditional clothes, hands full of green red bangles, and worship goddess Parvati.

In Jaipur, you can explore many epitomes of valour like Jaigarh Fort, Nahargarh Fort, and many more.

During the monsoon, the spell-binding locations are water lakes, if you love to see such beauty, then you definitely find the Jal Mahal mesmerizing. It is a place to have a walk in the realms of Mother Nature. And the most loving this is that this beautiful palace is the resting house of the migrating birds.

But the place that you should not miss while your visit to Jaipur is, Abhaneri Stepwell, which is also called Chand Baori, situated in the district of Dausa.

Jalore

Known by the name, City of Granite and grandeur. It is locating itself in the foothills of Swarnagiri Mountains, where the Hills of Aravalli Ranges is embracing the city into its arm. During monsoon this embrace becomes more ecstatic, and blissful. Under the grey shade sky, the green landscape makes the eyesight fresh, soothing, calm, and content. And the trees, leaves, flowers after taking the shower of the rain, shimmers.

In Jalore, you can explore Rajput Fortification, and there you can also get blessing of Sundha Maa Temple, which has its scared space atop Sundha Mountain since 900-years.

Udaipur

Udaipur is the ultimate tourist destination to visit in monsoon season. Also known as the City of Lakes, here, you get to see, the utter mesmerizing beauty of Rajasthan. It is the favourite destination opted by the couple to get married in a lavish way. The air of Udaipur is filled with the fresh essence of romance, more deeply during the season of monsoon.

Given name Venice of the east, truly justify by its scenic beauty where you will experience the tranquil Monsoon Palace i.e. Sajjan Garh Palace. Apart from this, you can also explore Taj Lake Palace.

Jhalawar

An eccentric place that is located in between the border of Rajasthan and Madhya Pradesh, in Kota district. Blessed with the flora and fauna by Mother Nature. The most magnificent thing about Jhalawar is the water-laden terrain, filled with the exquisite red coloured stones and rocks. The scenic beauty, embracing this amazing place filled with the vivacious colours. This picturesque enchanter makes this place the perfect monsoon destination of Rajasthan.

Here, you can explore various elegant forts like Jhalawar Fort, Gagron Fort, etc., you can also get the blessing of Chanrabhaga Temple and Dwarkadheesh Temple, and many more wonderful tourist attraction this place is having for you.

Enjoy your monsoon with an exquisite tour to Rajasthan!

We at Bluberry Holidays, always keen to make our clients happy with our best services, to make their journey memorable and wonderful in all the aspects. As a best travel agency in India, we take it as the responsibility to provide the utter quality benefit.

Customer Satisfaction is our Only Goal!!

Itinerary

Terms & Conditions
